AN EDITORIAL WORD

Cents are omitted in the statistical tables, which may account for minor discrepancies in addition.

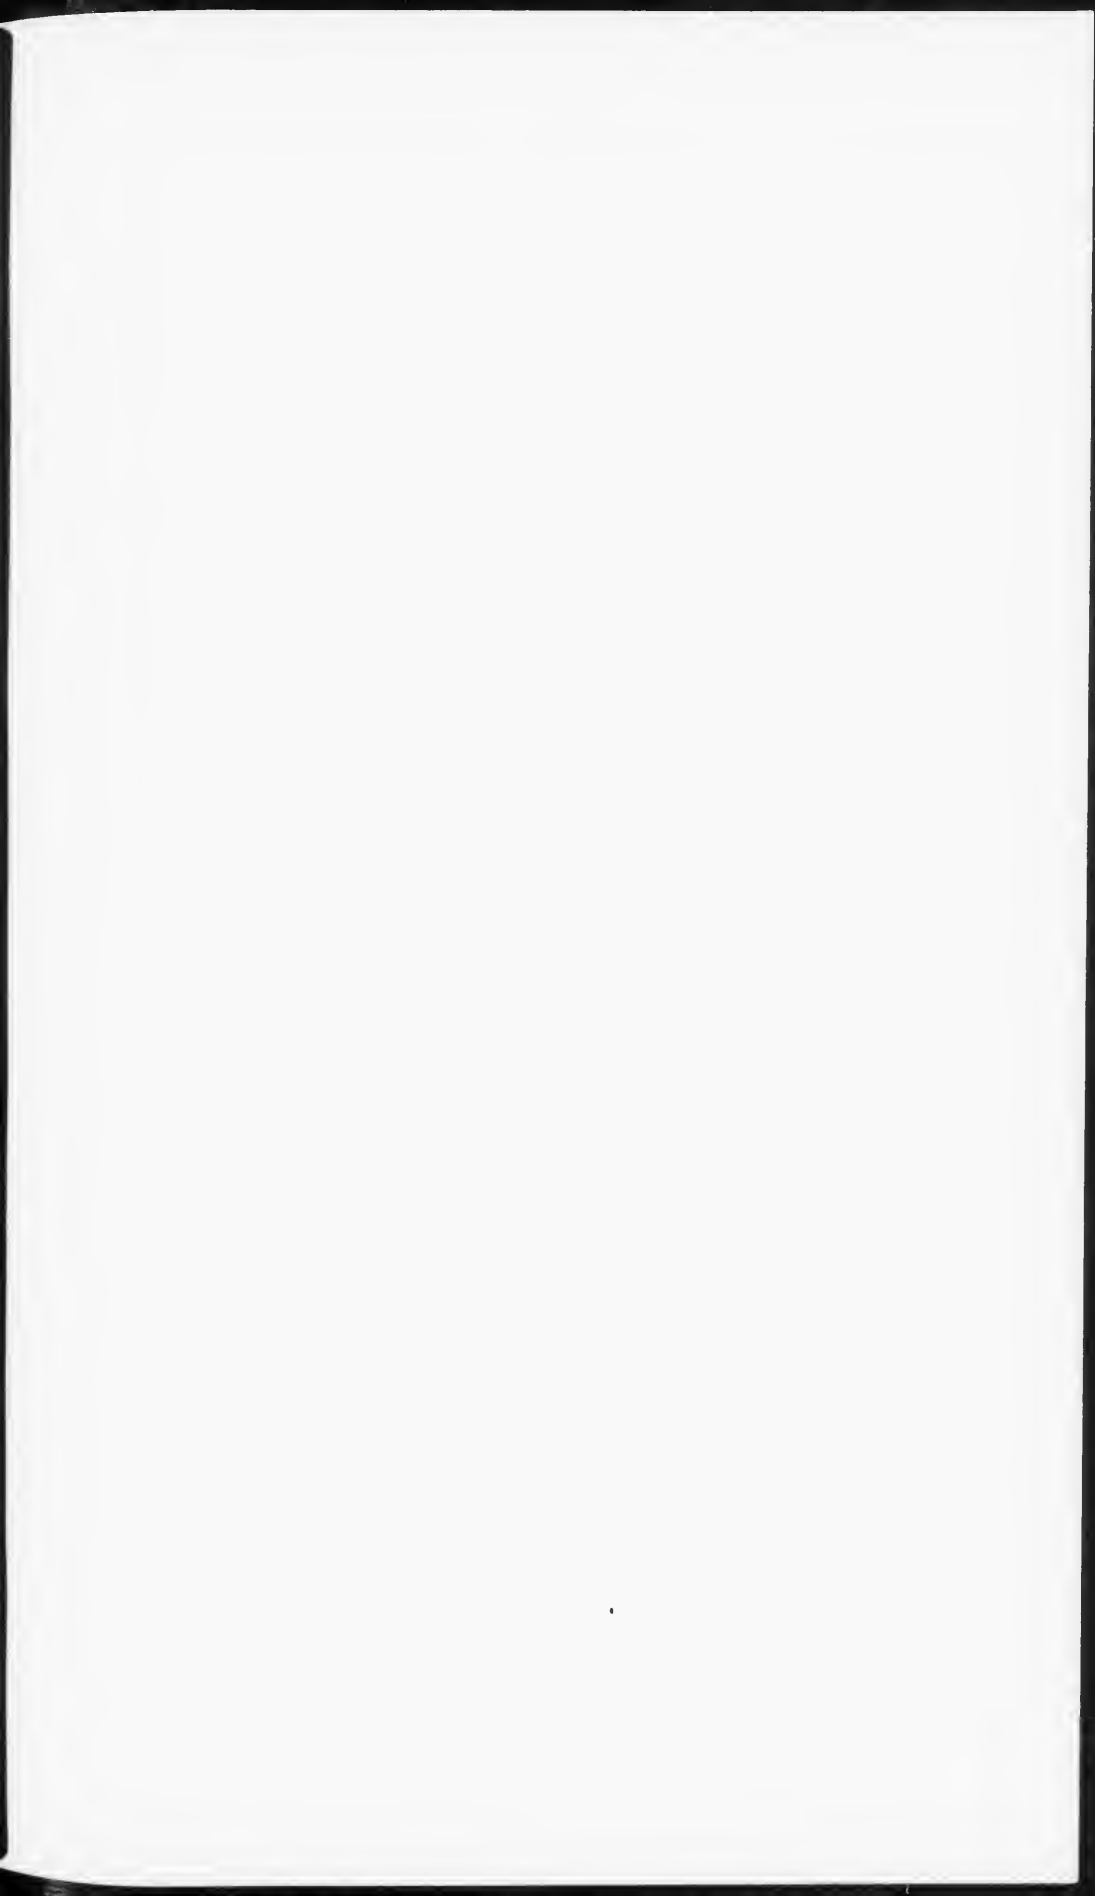

The picture of Mrs. William Witcher could not be secured for the memorial page.

In Financial table, Centenary, Chattanooga, should show a total of $17,139 from Table No. 3, and a grand total of $20,251, the change being due to correction by pastor after Conference. Newbern Circuit, Radford District, should show $151 for presiding elder, and $909 for presiding charge, due to an after-Conference correction.

We recommend our advertisers, as we publish none but those of high grade firms and institutions.

The Annuals are to be sold at twenty-five cents a copy, and the money sent to the Secretary at Abingdon, Va. If more copies are wanted, order from the Secretary.

JAMES A. BURLOW,
Secretary.

CONFERENCE REPORTS

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church beg leave to submit the following report:

First. Spirit is life. By the spiritual state of the Church, we understand is meant the sum total of the spiritual force, energy and vital life in all of the various departments of the Church's activities. It means more than the workings and effects of her external organizations, as effective as they are. It means the third personality of the triune God in the midst of his people.

By reports like this we are endeavoring to give our estimate of the vital, and real godliness of the Church, in our Conference. Without the dynamic force of the active presence of the Holy Spirit in the midst of the collective body of the Church, there can be no sustained, or aggressive assault made upon the strongholds of sin, and "spiritual wickedness in high places".

It is the Church's business to save the world from the pollution and death of sin, unto a life of righteousness here, and unto eternal life hereafter. In order to do this we must preach and live a religion so high as that no order or sect dare to conscientiously claim to live higher, or more holy lives than our people. This will settle many issues that are now before us.

Every member of our Church should have a thoroughly regenerated heart, the companionship of the witnessing Spirit of Almighty God, and be constantly groaning after that perfection of love that gives freedom from fear that hath torment.

The mighty responsibilities resting upon us involve the doing of stupendous tasks, which only man and God combined can do. God can only use holy vessels from the temple, therefore he says: "Be ye holy, for I am holy". The Gospel, which is the power of God unto salvation, is holy. God must have holy men to proclaim it, to an unholy, and unsaved world. He must have a holy Church to live and exemplify it in all the earth.

The Scriptures demand a vitally spiritual and devotedly consecrated laity in the Church. Of such only will God build the temple, founded upon the "prophets and the apostles", in which temple He ascends His throne to reign over the earth in righteousness.

We insist that our people in all of our homes erect family altars, after the "manner of the fathers", and upon them offer the incense of daily prayer to God. Let us fly to the rescue of home religion, adopting family altars, and again proclaim our fasts, that an offended God curse us not.

We are greatly gratified at the fact that there have been gracious revivals held in almost every charge in the Conference resulting in approximately 10,000 professions and about 6,000 accessions to the Church. All of the organized departments of our work show marked signs of advancement—our Sabbath schools, Leagues, church-buildings, benevolent work and many tokens beside, bespeak a healthy spiritual condition. May the Holy Ghost descend in pentecostal power upon our Zion and guide us all in the way of truth until we come to the Church of the first-born, unto the spirits of just men made perfect in Heaven.

J. A. H. SHULER, Chairman, Pro tem.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The latest, and perhaps, best definition of the Sunday-school is "the Bible studying and teaching service of the Church". Under this definition every class and age of humanity, from the strong men and teacher graduates, down to the child in its infancy is reached—from the Baracca class to the cradle roll, is the scope. Keeping this definition in mind all Protestantism, and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in particular, have abundant reason to give praise to Almighty God for the great increase, both in the number and effectiveness, of the Sunday-schools, during the present decade. From the report of the Sunday-school Editor and the statements of Dr. Hammil, we gather the following facts:

First. That during the past year in Southern Methodism the numerical increase has been 63 schools, 2,517 officers and teachers, 43,121 pupils—an increase of over 45,000 in enrollment.

Secondly. The past year records the aggregate circulation of the various Sunday-school periodicals at 1,521,600—an increase of 69,240 over the year preceding. Two new periodicals have been launched during the past year—the "Adult Student" and the "Primary Teacher". January, 1909, will witness the launching of yet another—a paper for the little people. A Baracca class literature is also being accumulated and published. This means for the coming year 14 distinct classes of literature covering every field of Sunday-school teaching and study.

Thirdly. That we now have at Nashville a first-class Sunday-school supply department, which puts up-to-date Sunday-school equipments and supplies within easy reach of all our people.

Fourthly. The increase in sales of the Sunday-school department last year amounted to $32,098.17. The Sunday-schools contributed to missions $113,422.97

Fifthly. We are also glad to announce that Dr. Hammil will give ten days to three district Sunday-school institutes within Holston Conference this year.

The Conference Sunday-school Board is groaning for a nearer attainment unto perfection in its own work and for fuller knowledge of Sunday-school conditions within our bounds. We would love to know just how comprehensive is the organization of each school in the Conference and just how effective its work. We earnestly desire that every pastor communicate to Brother Lyons, the Year Book editor, every especial feature, work and attainment of his schools; that such definite knowledge may be communicated through the Year Book to the Conference at large, for the benefit and emulation of all.

From the statements of our general Sunday school officials and from our own knowledge, we are persuaded that the best is not being made of Children's Day, and that the schools are not availing themselves of the funds as they ought. Children's Day ought to be more generally observed and the Children's Day fund, in no instance, ought to be diverted from its intended purposes. The criticisms visited upon the Board for failure to use the fund, more extensively in supplying needy Sunday-schools, should be visited upon careless pastors and superintendents who fail to avail themselves of the fund, and not to the Board which has persistently begged the privilege of aiding such schools. In order that the Board and the Sunday-schools may work together for mutual knowledge and effectiveness, we offer the following resolutions to be adopted and observed:

1st. That within sixty days from the adjournment of Conference each Presiding Elder shall appoint the best Sunday-school man obtainable from his district, as District Sunday-school Chairman, and forward the name to Rev. J. A. Lyons.

2nd. That each pastor, after diligent searching for all the facts, promptly fill out blanks that will come to them; asking for fullest information concerning the organization and work of his schools.

3rd. That, once more and again, we urge the fullest preparation for and the

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Even in the Southland the Sabbath has lost much of its sanctity. It has been, and is still very different to what it is in the North and West. But changed conditions and the coming among us of those who honor not the institutions of our fathers and our fathers' God, causes this question to demand more careful consideration than ever before.

More than once during the past year in the United States it has been declared by public speakers that the Puritan Sabbath is antiquated, that it needs to be a day of recreation, on which every temple of art, every theatre and place of amusement shall be thrown open so as to make the Sabbath a day of joy instead of a day of penitence, as the American Sabbath has been termed. Not many among us would dare to thus express it, but "actions speak louder than words". How many make this statement in actions! Some seem to feel that one hour given to the Church service is sufficient; they forget that God said "Remember the Sabbath day", not one hour of it.

The Mikado of Japan has said: "I have studied the nations, and those that stand highest keep the first day of the week". God knew man's needs when he provided him this day for worship and physical and mental rest. Then shall we forget it and in any way fail to keep it—not in mere letter, but in the spirit the Master kept it?

Whereas the infinite worth and serious peril of this gift of God alike demands the organized union of all who desire its defense and exaltation, therefore we rejoice to learn that a National Convention is called to meet in Pittsburg, Pa., December 1-3, to organize a United States Lord's Day Alliance. In accordance with their request that we appoint from our Conference two delegates, we would suggest Rev. George R. Stuart, and Rev. Eugene Blake, as delegates to this gathering.

B. W. LEE, Chairman.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

We are glad to note the increased interest in the cause of Church Extension throughout the entire connection. The Corresponding Secretary of the General Board reports an increase in receipts, both on assessments and to the Loan Fund Capital. We are sorry to report that "Loan Fund Day" (May 10, 1908) to which the attention of all the pastors was called, was observed by only nine charges, the total amount raised being only $81.00. This makes a total of only $839.00 contributed to this Fund by our Great Conference, since the organization of the Board twenty-six years ago. The attention of the brethren is called to this important claim, and they are urged to take action on it yet, as it is not too late to act. We are under particular obligations to do this, since our Conference has profited so largely by this fund.

Revs. E. F. Kahle, G. A. Maiden and J. D. Dyer were elected to fill vacancies on this Board.

The attention of the pastors is called to the provisions of the by-laws of this Board, as they will be strictly adhered to in the future. A number of applications before us had to be deferred till next year because they were defective and were filed too late.

We are much gratified to report an increase of more than $600 in contributions to this cause in our own Conference. We urge all the pastors to strive by every worthy means to pay the assessment in full. We have made appropriations as follows:

F TEMPERANCE

Under the providence of God, much has been accomplished during the past year all over our country, for the elimination of the liquor traffic. Since our Conference last met territory in the United States equal to five States the size of Virginia has gone dry. Liquor is sold with legal sanction in only four places in Tennessee. In Virginia there are eighty-two counties without saloons, while one hundred and thirty-one of her hundred and fifty-two incorporated towns, and nine of her nineteen cities, are dry.

In Holston Conference territory of Tennessee, comprising the whole of East Tennessee, there are but two saloon towns. In the portion of the Conference in Virginia, there is no legalized manufacture or sale of liquor, save the saloons at Pocahontas and the dispensary at Abingdon. The saloons of Pocahontas were voted out, but the will of the people was set aside upon a legal technicality. The territory of Holston Conference lying in West Virginia has not been quite so fortunate. In all of our territory much yet remains to be done in the eradication of these plague spots which remain, and for the enforcement of the law.

In any form the dispensing of malt, vinous or alcoholic liquors, as a beverage, is a wrongful and immoral thing. That thoughtful legislators should continue to attempt to give it a legal status in this day, when the results of such traffic are so well known, passes comprehension. We believe the public should be aroused by every educational factor—especially through the pulpit and the public press—to the duty that rests upon us of doing all in our power to rid our country of this immeasurable curse.

The press is a most powerful educational agency. We, therefore, deplore the tendency of many newspapers and periodicals of standing and influence to minimize the beneficial results of prohibition laws, when such laws have been made and put in force. When a newspaper constantly holds before the public, and advocates the thought, that laws made for the protection of the purity of the home, of our womanhood, and of our entire social fabric can not be enforced—when such papers either intimate to the law breakers that he may pursue his course without fear of legal penalty, and by suggestion to the executive branch of the government, create the impression that the people do not expect the law to be enforced, and so impress the public that it will not be a surprising thing if the law is constantly broken—we will not attempt to pass judgment on the sincerity and honesty of the management of such papers, but we do hold that such papers have no right of entrance into any patriotic American home.

We believe that the inter-state and intra-state shipment of liquors into dry territory is wrong, and should be forbidden. The inherent disposition of those engaged in the liquor traffic to discredit and defy all laws made for their regulation or control, constitutes a serious menace to all government and society, and nothing remains for us to do but to destroy, root and branch, this baneful and anarchistic power that has so firmly established itself in our beloved country.

Be it resolved, therefore (1st), That the legal liquor traffic wherever it exists is a Community, State and National sin, and we pledge ourselves to fight for its complete extinction (2nd). That we endeavor in every possible way to arouse and stimulate the ever increasing sentiment of the people to a more thorough understanding of the enormities and iniquities of this abominable traffic.

(3rd). That the saloon has no right to existence, except as the people grant it through their suffrages, and the responsibility, therefore, for this awful curse rests upon the voters of our country.

(4th). That law enforcement is altogether as important as law enactment, and we most earnestly urge our people to sink all political differences in the election of officers who will strictly enforce the laws enacted, so that the expressed will of the people for the suppression and destruction of this curse may be given effect.

(5th). That we earnestly favor and desire such State and National legislation as will give full force and effect to State prohibition laws.

(6th). That we earnestly endeavor to secure the aid of the public press in the suppression of this great enemy, and that we give our support and access to our homes to those newspapers which advocate prohibition and encourage the enforcement of law, rather than to those which do not.

(7th). That we commend the wise, conservative and practicable methods of the Anti-Saloon League of America, and rejoice in the effective and telling progress made during the past year, for the annihilation of the legalized liquor traffic, under its leadership.

We earnestly recommend to our preachers and churches that they give the officers and workers of the League a welcome hearing at least once a year, and accord the work a generous support.

(8th). Our General Conference has given us a forceful delivery upon the tobacco habit, and we most earnestly commend the same to our preachers and membership generally, and recommend that they abstain from its use.

(9th). That we recognize with pride the effective service rendered during the past year by Rev. J. D. McAlister, as Field Secretary for the Virginia Anti-Saloon League, and request that he be reappointed to this position.

M. H. HONAKER, Chairman.

J. D. McALISTER, Secretary.

BIBLE BOARD

Your Bible Board has charge of the interest of the American Bible Society as it relates to our Conference, and in order to estimate the importance of the work we must consider at least two great facts the purpose and the worth of the Bible itself, and the place the American Bible Society occupies in printing and distributing Bibles in many tongues throughout the earth.

It needs no argument to see and know that the word of God is indispensable to all Christian work in Christian lands, but it is even more so, if possible, to the Christianizing of pagan lands. It is the main piece in the essential armory of the missionary. With these fundamental facts in mind we mention a few things the American Bible Society is doing.

It has just completed its ninety-second year, and during these years it has issued 82,316,323 copies of the Scriptures. The issues of the society at home and in foreign lands during the past year have been, in round numbers, 1,900,000 Bibles, Testaments and portions of the Scripture, somewhat more than half of these from the Bible house in New York, and the rest through the societies, agencies in Turkey, Syria, Siam, China and Japan. John Fox, Secretary, says the aggregate of gifts to the treasury from the living has slightly increased; but there has been a very large decrease in its legacy receipts as compared with last year. So that, as a whole, the total receipts from all sources are less by $101,216.21. But the demands made upon the organization both at home and abroad are daily increasing. In the United States these needs are being partially met by the creation of several agencies, two of which have their headquarters at Atlanta, Ga., and Richmond, Va., respectively. But to our mind the supreme reason for the Church's wholehearted support of the American Bible Society, is the fact that its work of printing the word of God in the languages and dialects of the people where our missions are planted, can not now be done by the Church itself or any other agency, save the British and Foreign Bible Society, a similar institution.

The dependence of our missions, foreign particularly, is an all sufficient reason in itself for our hearty support of the society, and besides it should never be forgotten by us or our people that this institution was founded and has been operated wholly for philanthropy's sake. This is seen in the fact that it not only sells Bibles at cost, but donates to individuals many thousands every year, and runs its business on as economical a basis as possible.

Now with these, of many significant facts before us, we are bold to assert that it is not only a duty but a privilege to be as much interested in, and to work as faithfully for, this society as for missions. Particularly would we do this since legacies are falling off and the missionary fields are widening, and our dependence upon it growing none the less. We would therefore urge our pastors to bring this great cause before their people, and see that the collections are taken.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

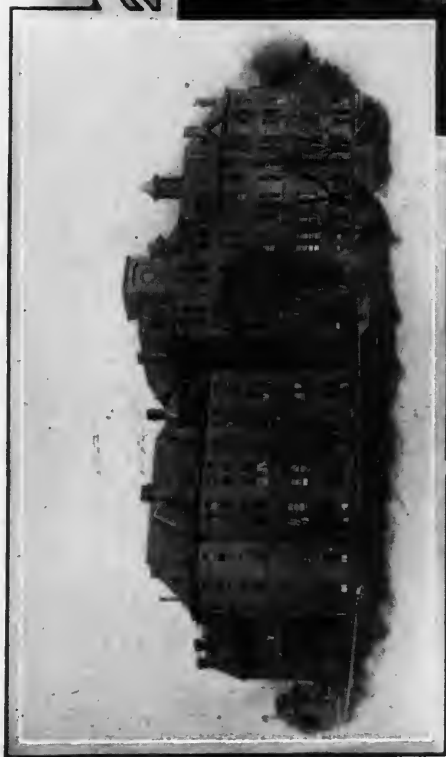

The report of our General Board of Missions shows that the past year has been characterized by great revivals in all the foreign fields of our Church. The net increase in membership was 2,270, bringing the total membership in the six missions up to 21,000. The Sunday-school attendance is greater. Our schools and hospitals are overflowing. Never have such demands been made upon us for equipment and enlargement. The success of our missionaries becomes our embarrassment. The whole Church must move forward if we would measure up to the demands of the hour. The response made by the laymen to these demands is an encouraging sign of the times. We endorse the resolution of their movement, as expressed in their Conference at Chattanooga, that, "The Church ought, within the next year, to increase its contributions for missions to One Million Dollars." Including the work of our women, $766,000 was raised for Foreign Missions last year, so that an increase of $234,000 is needed to accomplish this end, which is an increase over the present assessment of 35%. We therefore offer for your adoption the following resolution: "That we will most earnestly endeavor to induce our charges through the laymen's movement and otherwise, to raise at least 35% more than their assessment for Foreign Missions."

The work of the Home Department is encouraging. The home mission spirit throughout the Church, and this effort to put the strength of the whole Church to the most difficult tasks in the home field, is worthy of encouragement and support. We rejoice that plans have been made to meet the incoming immigrants at Galveston with the handclasp of Christian brotherhood, and similar plans are on foot for New Orleans and Gulfport.

The Mission study classes have put new life into every Epworth League adopting them. We urge our pastors to give every encouragement and help to our young people in organizing such classes, and wherever possible that such classes for study be organized among all the adult members of the Church. Will not this be a genuine revival of the Methodist class meeting?

The year has been a fairly successful one in our Conference. Some great revivals have been held in our Mission charges, and most of them have made substantial progress. The tardiness of the pastors in sending the money for Home Missions to the Treasurer caused a delay of three weeks in paying the drafts for the third quarter. You thus compelled us, virtually, to borrow for this time without interest, several thousand dollars, from men who could ill afford to make the loan. We urge early payments, that such a contingency may not arise again.

Our evangelists have been very faithful and diligent. They have held nearly forty protracted meetings, resulting in 2,000 conversions. The collections of one more than pays his salary and expenses, while those of the other falls short. As we employ them both again, you will see that this is no effort on our part merely to get money. It is our desire that they help in the weak places as well as the strong, but we will not send them anywhere unless they are invited. This is a great opportunity for the strong churches to help the weak. If the strong churches, where they hold meetings, will contribute to them as liberally as they do to the evangelists who work under the authority of no church, we can afford to send them into more of the weak places, without risk of taking money from the funds provided by our regular collections, to pay the salaries of our pastors on Mission charges.

In response to the generous offer of our Epworth Leagues to provide the support, we inaugurated work among our foreigners of West Virginia. The work began most auspiciously—some forty or fifty conversions have been reported. Owing to the ill health of our missionary, acting on the advice of his physician, a month ago he left for a climate better suited to his physical state. We have made the necessary appropriations from funds to be paid by the Epworth League to continue the mission, and so soon as a suitable man can be found, taught the language, and trained somewhat for the work in the field, our appropriation will be needed to meet his expenses while in training as well as to pay his salary when in active service. The General Secretaries pledge their help in finding the man, and in training him for the work. We urge the Epworth Leagues to pay their pledges as soon as possible, that we may proceed with these plans.

We will hold our mid-year meeting at Elizabethton, Tenn., on the 18th and 19th of February, 1909, and invite the leaders of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of our Conference, and for the several districts, to join us in the Conference at Johnson City on Tuesday, February 17th, the day preceding the mid-year meeting.

Recognizing the great need for such an institution, and being urged repeatedly by preachers and people, we have agreed to co-operate in the maintenance of Hiwassee College, as a high school, and have made an appropriation for the salary of the President. The school has opened auspiciously, and is doing a genuine missionary work. The Conference Board, and your Board of Missions, is providing for the necessary teaching force and equipment to make a first class school.

We recommend J. W. Perry for appointment as Conference Missionary Secretary.

We have elected our Chairman, Rev. S. B. Vaught, to represent us in the meeting of Conference Missionary Secretaries and Board officers at Nashville next December.

We earnestly request every pastor who is willing to devote ten days or more during the year to evangelistic effort, wherever needed, to send his name to Rev. S. B. Vaught, Chairman of our Executive Committee, designating the time most suitable for him to render such service, and he will be sent to some place deserving such help. Such services are to be rendered without cost to any charge, except the expense of travel. This call is made that we may serve the struggling and weak places more fully than we can hope to do with the service of the regularly appointed evangelists. All pastors desiring such help should notify our Chairman as soon as possible, signifying the time when they wish to begin. Arrangements will be made for them. To aid in this work, we will have suitable blanks prepared for the use of all applicants for aid in protracted meetings.

We have authorized the Executive Committee of our Board to appoint five delegates to the Mid-winter Institute of the Missionary Training School, Nashville, Tenn. We would urge that whenever they can not pay their own expenses, or where their pastoral charges can not do so, that the funds be provided at the District Missionary Institute, of which the several delegates are members. We regret our inability to furnish them scholarships. The splendid work of the training school deserves our heartiest endorsement, and we urge all our pastors to send to it capable young women and men to be trained for the service of the Church.

The General Board has apportioned $12,100 to our Conference to be raised for Foreign Missions, and while needing much more, we ask you for $10,000 for Home Missions. These sums we have apportioned to the several districts as follows:

With grateful acknowledgment to God for His blessings and feelings of appreciation for the loyal support of our presiding elders, pastors and people in the work committed to us, we respectfully submit this report.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS

What we read and how we read it largely determines our character and destiny. So taught our divine Lord in his response to the tempting question of the inquiring lawyer, "Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" The answer is "What is written; how readest thou?" What we read sustains the same vital relation to mental growth and moral purity as does what we eat to our physical health and material good. Our center-tables and our libraries foretold the kind of children our homes will send forth to bless the Church, or to blight the world.

Our publishing house is the house of bread, the fount of water, to the people who are an hungered and athirst for eternal, immortal truth and life. In this age of the printing press, when our home-life and Church-life are being daily affected and infected by a secularizing journalism; when the Church of God, in all Christendom, has no daily paper, but must depend upon weekly and monthly intelligence of its doings and goings; when our whole land is being flooded with defiling and devouring literature, issued mainly for ungodly gains by the emissaries of vice and the enemies of truth, it behooves us, as guardians of private and public morals, to pledge and perform our vows of fidelity to the papers and periodicals of Christian worth. Our arsenals are amply supplied with every requisite for successful warfare, but our soldiery in battle array, in large numbers, is unarmed, and, on many a field, surrenders our banners to literary foes. Our connectional organs—the Advocate, the Review, the Epworth Era, and our Sunday-school literature are the equal of any, the superior of many, and deserve increasing patronage.

Be it resolved, That we, as pastors, make special effort for their wider circulation. Our agents have been faithful and successful servants, and merit our confidence in their business integrity in the conduct of our publishing interests. We note with great pleasure the increasing prosperity of our house, one of the best equipped institutions in our Southland. Our Midland Methodist, in the hands of that self-sacrificing, tireless worker, O. W. Patton, and of our energetic and consecrated T. C. Schuler, the worthy successor of our peerless Burrow, deserves our especial attention. Because of increased cost in material, and a laudable desire to compensate solicited contributors, the annual price of our Conference organ must be advanced from two cents to three cents per week, from $1.00 to $1.50 per annum, to make it self-sustaining, and the official representative of one of the largest Conferences in our connection.

Resolved, therefore, That we heartily concur in the price advanced, and shall do our best to bring the Midland to 10,000 subscriptions the ensuing Conference year.

The History of Holston Methodism by Dr. R. N. Price merits our highest praise and heartiest support, and to the able and honored author, who has honored us all by his useful life and faithful service, we pledge our sympathy and co-operation in the sale of our History, in Volumes I, II, III, that Volume IV may be forthcoming.

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. T. C. Schuler to be the editor of the Midland Methodist.

JNO. M. CROWE, Chairman.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Never before in the history of our country has there been a more intense interest and activity in educational work. We hail with gladness the advance made in the work of our public school system and accord our hearty support to the work that is being done by the State. We note, however, that there are numerous situations wherein the secondary school of the Church is needed and its establishment is imperative. It causes your Board regret that on account of lack of means all the calls for aid made on it for help in establishing these schools can not be satisfactorily answered. Our secondary schools are all in prosperous condition. The class of work done is commendable and attendant religious influences apparent.

Emory and Henry College has had a most gratifying career. With an increasing patronage, the completion of the Academy Building and Students' Home at a cost of about $30,000, with the 1,000,000 of bricks in process of making for another Students' Home and Main Building, with practically one-half of the $75,000 subscription paid and the other half being paid as it comes due, and with a faculty of such fidelity and fitness, we have reason to be thankful and greatly encouraged.

Your Board asks that the Committee of Management be continued and requests Bishop Hoss to reappoint Rev. J. O. Straley as Financial Agent of the college, in connection with his regular appointment.

Martha Washington College has had a most encouraging patronage and her prospect is altogether promising. There has been a notable decrease in the debt. Bishop Hoss is requested to reappoint Rev. E. F. Kahle Commissioner of Education for this institution.

Centenary College was never in better condition. The enrollment is equal to the capacity for accommodation, two new teachers have been added, more insurance taken and the debt largely provided for. This Board recommends that the Trustees of the Centenary College be allowed to employ a Financial Agent if they so desire.

Sullins College reports an advance in patronage and a condition of affairs thoroughly satisfactory.

From reports of our Conference colleges and academies we present the following facts:

The presiding elder of the Chattanooga District is requested to appoint a pastor in his district to raise the debt on Pryor Institute or call on the Commissioner of Education for Martha Washington College.

There has been a notable increase in the number of those taking the course of the Vanderbilt Correspondence School. We commend this work to all our preachers and particularly to our undergraduates.

A commission consisting of J. A. Baylor, E. E. Wiley, and R. G. Waterhouse was appointed to meet a like commission from the Tennessee Conference to consider the establishment of a secondary school on the Cumberland plateau. Your Board asks the Conference to confirm this appointment.

H. J. McKelvy, Roy Early, and J. H. Montgomery are recommended for appointment as students to Emory and Henry College.

The names of Eugene Blake, J. E. Gardener, George P. Loy, G. S. Timmons, and Dr. Wm. Taylor are nominated as additional trustees for the New Market College property, located at New Market, Tenn., or in case of any legal difficulty they are to act as a committee instead of trustees.

R. K. Sutherland is appointed to confer with the presidents of our Church schools and academies and with the presiding elders and secure a list of visitors to each of our schools and send it to the Secretary of the Conference to be published in our next Annual.

Your Board of Education believes that the Faculty and Board of Trustees of Emory and Henry College can and will deal with the request of the student body with reference to intercollegiate athletics in a way altogether worthy of the school and students, and we request that the matter be referred to them, together with the Executive Committee of this Board.

This Board makes an assessment of $5,150 on the Conference for the incoming year to be applied as follows: To Emory and Henry College, $4,000; to Hiwassee College, $900; for expenses of the Board, $250. This assessment, along with that for Education Extension levied by the General Board, is apportioned to the districts as follows:

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

Your Committee on District Conference Records, having examined the nine records submitted for inspection, find them complete. In the cases of the Chattanooga, East Chattanooga, Knoxville, Big Stone Gap, and Bluefield Districts they are unexceptionable. The West Knoxville record, however, besides having occasional blots, is incorrect in spelling, punctuation, and paragraphing. The Wytheville and Radford records are deficient in penmanship. That of the latter has some grammatical errors. The material of the Morristown record could have been better arranged. The records of the Spring City and Tazewell Districts have not come into our hands.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

The General Secretary's report states that this has been the most prosperous year in the history of the Epworth Leagues. Three hundred and fourteen chapters were organized, the membership increased 4,233, while the total membership is now 127,924. The Epworth Era is one of the best papers published for young people, and is meeting the expense of its publication. Samples of League literature may be had by applying to the central office.

The Epworth Leagues of the Conference have made encouraging progress. There are now seventy-five Senior and seventy-nine Junior chapters. The Harriman Conference was largely attended and the results were gratifying. Subscriptions amounting to about $1,200 were made for the support of the Italian Mission in the West Virginia coal field, and a scholarship on the foreign field. Owing to the difficulty of securing an Italian to take charge of the Mission, it has become necessary to find some American preacher who is either familiar already with the Italian language, or will set himself at once to acquire it.

In view of the action of the League Conference in appropriating $60 this year for the scholarship, we endorse the decision of the Executive Committee to apply this amount to the education of a native minister in our Theological College in Kobe, Japan, and advise its continuance for a period of three years.

A few Boys' Leagues have been organized, and are running successfully. Many think this the solution of the boy problem in the Church.

Believing that the most thorough and far-reaching missionary work can be accomplished only by the thorough instruction of our young people in the principles and accomplishments of missionary operations, we urge the organization of Mission Study Classes in every chapter.

It is expected that the Leagues will continue to observe the second Sunday in February as Epworth League day, at which time a collection will be taken and forwarded to Harry Swan, Jr., Bristol, Tenn.

We congratulate the officers of the League Conference on the excellent manner in which the Annual Minutes have been published. The results will justify the expense incurred.

In response to the request of the League Conference President we assure him of our hearty co-operation, during the year, in carrying out any plans the Executive Committee may devise for furthering the League interests.

It is of paramount importance that our leaders be more thoroughly trained in all that goes to secure efficiency in League operation, and we believe the Assembly idea, as carried out at Corpus Christi, Texas, Biloxi, Mississippi, and Pertle Springs, Missouri, gives the best opportunity for such training. We, therefore, heartily endorse the resolution adopted at Harriman to co-operate with the Laymen's Movement, looking to the establishment of Chau-tauqua grounds at Tate Spring, and secure for the Leaguers of Holston Conference a site for a building, and to plan for a Summer School.

MEMOIRS

JOHN C. RUNYAN

John Clay Runyan was born July 1, 1845, in Meigs County, Tenn., and died May 2, 1908. He was married to Miss Cordelia L. Roberts May 25, 1876. There were seven children born as the result of this happy union. Two are no more. Mrs. Runyan died some fifteen years ago.

Brother Runyan was received into full connection in the Holston Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in the fall of 1873. He was a good preacher. With the exception of a few years in which he had a nominal appointment, he was regularly in the work as an itinerant preacher up to the fall of 1907, when he applied to the Conference for a superannuate's relation.

He was buried at Pleasant Grove, Tenn., in the bounds of the Stony Point Circuit on Monday, May 4, 1908. The service was conducted by Rev. J. E. Lowry and Rev. J. B. Carnes. We laid him beside his sainted wife to await the resurrection morning.

Brother Runyan had an appointment to preach the Sunday before he died. He fell with the gospel harness on. His death was rather sudden, coming after only two days of illness. God bless the orphan children and bring them at last to a happy and joyous reunion with father and mother in that home that knows no parting.

I want to add here what one of our old local preachers has to say about him in a letter to me some time ago: "Our Brother Runyan so suddenly passed from labor to refreshments. We know that he was a good man and true in every sense of the word—true to his God, to his Church, to his family, to his Conference, and true to his Southern principles from which he never wavered for a moment." Brother Runyan was a member in good standing of the Masonic fraternity. He never soiled his white apron.

Brother Runyan traveled the following charges: Rye Cove Circuit, 1871 to 1873; he was received into full connection and ordained a deacon at Abingdon, October, 1873, and was appointed to the Maryville and Louisville Circuit at this Conference; Louisville, from 1874 to 1875; Maryville and Louisville, 1875 to 1876; Athens Circuit, 1877 to 1878; Clinton Circuit, 1878 to 1882; Jonesville, 1883; Andersonville, 1884; supernumerary at Jacksboro, 1885 to 1887; Estilville, 1889 to 1890; Mount Vernon, 1890; Andersonville, 1892 to 1894; Little River, 1895; Maynardsville, 1896 to 1897; Conference Colporteur, 1897 to 1898; New Hope, 1898 to 1899; Mount Vernon, 1898 to 1903; Kingston, 1903 to 1904; Honaker, 1904 to 1905; Kingston, 1905 to 1906.

JOHN B. CARNES.

MRS. D. MCCrackEN

Mrs. Jennie Stover McCracken, the beloved and faithful wife of Rev. D. McCracken, and sister of Rev. J. T. Stover, of the Western North Carolina Conference, was born in Pulaski County, Va., June 16, 1846, and died in Hawkins County, Tenn., in the bounds of the Surgoinsville Circuit, June 7, 1908. She was married to Rev. D. McCracken October 10, 1887. She was the mother of one child, a son, who was taken to the heavenly home in infancy.

Her religious experience brought out the fact that she was converted at family worship in her mother's home while her stepfather led in prayer, when she was a small girl. This experience became more vivid with added years and there was never a blurred spot or a murky vision as it related to the genuineness of her conversion. She was a Methodist, true and tried. She was cultured, refined, intelligent, and deeply pious—every way suited to fill the important sphere of an itinerant preacher's wife. She was popular and dearly loved by the people in all the places where her husband served as pastor. During the twenty-one years of her itinerant career she moved fourteen times, and on some of the charges where she lived there was no parsonage. This was the case in her last charge; but she was tenderly housed in the home of that elect lady, the widow of the late Rev. J. K. Wolfe. It was here on the afternoon of one of the loveliest summer Sundays that one ever beholds that her spirit was released from its clay tenement and wafted to the city that is eternal in the heavens. Through all the checkered scenes, hardships, and sacrifices incident to a preacher's life (her husband's salary always small), not a word of complaint ever escaped her lips.

The funeral was conducted by the writer in the presence of a large congregation of bereaved and sorrowful friends. Her mortal remains were tenderly laid to rest at Bethel, a beautiful new church in Stanley Valley, Hawkins County, Tenn.

Sister McCracken leaves only a few relatives, her brother and his family in North Carolina and a sister somewhere in the West. Brother McCracken has few, if any, relatives in the world. His load is heavy, his heart is sore, his way is dark, so far as it concerns terrestrial things; but he knows where to go for solid comfort.

R. A. OWEN.

MRS. MARY J. WITCHER

Mary J. Crisman was born in the little town of Dechard, Tennessee, January 23, 1843. She made a profession of saving faith in Jesus Christ in her sixteenth year. Her family were Cumberland Presbyterians. She had a brother who was an honored minister of that Church, and at the time of her conversion she united with the Cumberland Presbyterians. Soon after this, September 9, 1869, she was married to Rev. William Witcher, of the Holston Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Brother Witcher had been a member of the Holston Conference twenty years when they were married, and was several years her senior. She transferred her membership at once to the Methodist Church, and for eighteen years she shared with her husband the labor and self-denial of a traveling Methodist preacher. They were often appointed to hard, rough fields of labor, where there were few comforts, little pay, and much work, but she cheerfully accepted it all for the Master's sake. Brother Witcher died in 1892, leaving her a widow with an only son, Marvin. The sixteen years of her widowhood she devoted to the education and moral training of her son. Through marvelous industry and economy Brother Witcher was enabled to leave her a comfortable home in Cleveland, Tennessee. Here she lived a modest, quiet, motherly Christian woman, respected and loved by her neighbors. She received a small amount annually from our Conference fund, which supplemented her little income derived from her sewing, and enabled her to have the comforts of life. Her son, for the last few years of her life, was a great comfort and help to her, contributing to her support. She died a peaceful death in her home in Cleveland May 26, 1908, and was buried by the side of her husband there. Her neighbors loved her and they miss her, but also rejoice that her crossing was easy and her entrance was triumphant.

SAMUEL T. SENTER.

MRS. MINNIE HENDERSON HENDRICKS

Mrs. Minnie Henderson Hendricks, wife of Rev. W. S. Hendricks, of the Holston Conference, died at the parsonage in Newport, Tenn., August 22, 1908, aged twenty-six years and one day. Her disease was tuberculosis, with which she suffered many months; but she bore her sufferings with Christian patience and submission. She was a happy, devoted Christian. She was married to Rev. W. S. Hendricks July 26, 1905, and was all that a traveling preacher's wife ought to be. Industrious and careful, sweet-tempered and affectionate, she made her home a delightful place for her husband and child and visiting friends. She left one child, a boy, two years old. Her neighbors speak of her as a lovable Christian woman. What a sad loss to the husband and child! What a loss to the Church and community! And yet how pleasant to believe that, having laid aside her mortal body, she has been clothed upon with immortality! Brother Hendricks has and will have the sincere condolences of all his brethren. The funeral ceremonies were conducted by the writer in the Methodist Church in Morristown, and the remains were laid away in the city cemetery. The grave was heaped with beautiful flowers, tokens of respect and fervent love and emblems of a blissful immortality.

R. N. PRICE.

MRS. JOHN C. BAYS

Sallie Gage Finley was born in Washington County, Virginia, January 25, 1862, and died in great peace at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. S. J. Bays, in Blount County, Tenn., May 31, 1908, aged forty-six years, four months and six days. She professed faith in Christ and joined the Church in early life. She often said she could not remember the time when she did not want to be numbered with God's people. She was religious all her life.

She was married to Rev. J. C. Bays, of the Holston Conference, October 26, 1886. To this union were given three children. The first-born preceded her to the better land. The day she gave her hand and heart to her husband, she gave her life, her all, to the Methodist itinerancy, in which she lived, worked and died. To share the happiness, joy, toils, cares and disappointments of an itinerant life, she was, no doubt, called of God. She was truly one with her husband in all his long, laborious, itinerant life. Wherever the Church said go, she went and labored for God and humanity. As a friend, I knew her in her early life; as her presiding elder, I knew her for four consecutive years, being often in her home, where I always found her bright, witty and happy, never murmuring, never complaining, but rejoicing that she was thought worthy a place in her Master's kingdom, where she might labor for him who died for her.

The last year of her life was one of great suffering, yet amid it all, she never lost interest in the work of the Church. Often when her husband thought he ought to remain at home with her, she objected, saying "Go on to your appointment; I will be cared for." This was characteristic of her unselfish, consecrated life. On Thursday, before she went away, she called her husband, two boys and friends around her and gave them her parting blessing. She then gave directions concerning her funeral, asking that the writer should make a talk; Brother Orr, her presiding elder, should preach the sermon, and the Conference trio should sing, and that her remains be taken to Abingdon, Va., for burial, all of which was done just as she requested. Just after making these requests and pronouncing her blessings, she became unconscious, from which she never rallied. Her work was done. She fell on sleep and went home to God. Thus ended a beautiful, Christian life. Heaven's blessings upon the sorrowing husband and boys.

"We shall sleep, but not forever;
There will be a glorious dawn.
We shall meet to part, no never,
On the resurrection morn."

EUGENE BLAKE.
